

Photo Report of CAC/IRP Manager BBQ for Hinkley Community

May 31, 2014
Hinkley, CA

Prepared by

Dr. Ian A. Webster, IRP Manager
Project Navigator, Ltd.

The CAC and the IRP Manager Hosted a BBQ for the Hinkley Community at the Hinkley Community Center on Saturday, May 31, 2014. The Only Exhibit on Display was a Poster of the Cr6 Plume Location.

The Community Center's Website Noticed the BBQ

Hinkley Community and Senior Center

Dinner Friday Night June 6th. Enchiladas 4:30 to 6:30. $5.00 per person. Come and enjoy homemade recipe. Tell Friends and Family you won't be disappointed
Click Here for more Details

Welcome to our facility

Visit the new playground !!!

Welcome to our website. Take some time to check it out and see what we are all about ! Stop by and have a great meal or just cool off in our air conditioned building. Many services are available including facility rental. Contact us or stop by today !

The IRP Manager's Team Thanks John Turner who Organized and Grilled...

...Ablly Assisted by Well Known Faces from the Community.

The BBQ Setup Had a Excellent Vibe and Feeling of Camaraderie as Folks Pitched in to Help...

...Readying for the BBQ, which Ran from 11 am to 2 pm.

There was a Good Turnout over the 3 Hours, with Folks Enjoying Each Others Company throughout Two Rooms.

CAC Member Betty Hernandez and IRP Manager, Dr. Ian Webster Made Some Remarks to Clear Confusion About the CAC Request to Residents to Allow their Private Well Data to be Reviewed by USGS's Dr. John Izbicki in his Cr6 Background Study.

